CLUB BUSINESS MEETING

| 24 APR 2024

At the recent Rotary Club of Kolhapur meeting, President Elect Rtn. Arunkumar and Jt. Secretary Rtn. Sahil outlined the budget for the Rotary Year 2024–25. Among the proposals discussed, Rtn. Arunkumar suggested implementing a composite GST rate of 6% on Club Dues starting from the said Rotary Year. The proposed Club Dues for Rotarians amount to Rs. 32,000 inclusive of GST, with Rs. 30,000 designated for club dues and Rs. 2,000 for RSSK. For Spouse Rotarians, the proposed dues are Rs. 16,000, with Rs. 14,000 for club dues and Rs. 2,000 for RSSK. Additionally, new joining members are expected to contribute Rs. 10,000 as admission fees towards RSSK. The Club accepted these proposals.

4TH CLUB ASSEMBLY

| 24 APR 2024

The 4th Club Assembly of the Rotary Club of Kolhapur was convened under the guidance of President Rtn. Siddharth. He opened the session by welcoming all attendees and highlighted the upcoming District Training Assembly in Belgaum on June 1st & 2nd, urging maximum participation. Additionally, he emphasized the importance of volunteering for the Artificial Limb Camp scheduled for April 28th. Assistant Governor Rtn. Sachin Malu presided over the assembly, overseeing Avenue Directors' reports on club activities and commending the club's efforts. Rtn. Sachin discussed the club's targets for TRF and Global Grant, urging generous contributions to the APF with detailed options for donation. The meeting concluded with President Siddharth extending gratitude to host Rtn. Shankar Patil and his son for their hospitality and adjourning the assembly. The gathering served as a platform to align club members with upcoming events, recognize achievements, and emphasize philanthropic endeavors.
